

Qualitative Extension of the Learning Outcomes Study

Parents Interview Questions

1. What do you think is the most positive aspect of this program for your child?
What might be a negative aspect?
2. If you could, how would you like to change the program?
3. How do you think this program influences your child's academic abilities?
4. How do you think this program influences your child's self-concept?
5. How do you think this program influences your child's motivation?
6. How do you think this program influences your child's creativity?
7. Do you get enough information about the program? What types of information do you get?